

October 30, 2012

Press Release

“Domestic Relations: Family Matters”

Thursday, November 8, 2012, Noon – 1:00 p.m., TD Bank, Northampton
Tuesday, November 13, 2012, 5:00 – 6:00 p.m., TD Bank, Northampton
Thursday, November 15, 2012, 7:00 – 8:00 p.m., Florence Savings Bank, Hadley

The Lawyer Referral Service of the Hampshire County Bar Association is offering a free legal education seminar, “Domestic Relations: Family Matters” for Hampshire County residents on Thursday, November 8, 2012 from Noon – 1:00 p.m. at TD Bank, Northampton, on Tuesday, November 13, 2012 from 5:00 – 6:00 p.m. at TD Bank, Northampton and on Thursday, November 15, 2012 from 7:00 - 8:00 p.m. at Florence Savings Bank in Hadley.

“Domestic Relations: Family Matters” will provide a general overview of the various topics: Divorce, Paternity, Separation; Custody, Visitation, Parenting Plans; Child Support, Equitable Division: Assets & Liabilities; Prenuptial and Postnuptial Agreements; Collaborative Law, Mediation, Negotiation, Arbitration, Litigation; Parent Education and Parent Coordinators.

The presenting attorneys include Wendy M. Berg, Community Legal Aid, Valerie J. Botter, Attorney/Mediator and James B. Winston, James B. Winston Law Office. Seunghee Cha, Attorney, Oasis Law will serve as the moderator.

The Lawyer Referral Service is a public service program administered by the Hampshire County Bar Association referring callers to panel attorneys or to other legal resources as needed, and providing free legal educational seminars to the public. The Hampshire County Bar Association is a service organization composed of attorneys and dedicated to improving the quality of the practice of law in this county by providing support to the community, the bench and the bar on issues that are relevant to the local community.

Rebecca J. Ryan
Lawyer Referral Service
Hampshire County Bar Association
15 Gothic St., Suite 10
Northampton, MA 01060-3084
Tel: (413) 586-8729
Fax: (413) 586-7388
Email: hcba@crocker.com
www.hampshirebar.org

###